The Downtown Barstool Open is El Paso's largest and most spirited mini golf tournament. Teams of four travel through a variety of Downtown bars, restaurants, and hotels, each featuring a uniquely designed mini-golf hole. The event combines friendly competition with food, drinks, and lively atmospheres, creating a one-of-a-kind experience. It's become a signature tradition that highlights local businesses while drawing hundreds of participants to explore Downtown.

Saturday, January 31, 2026

Downtown Restaurant Week is a highly anticipated annual celebration of El Paso's vibrant culinary scene. For one week, participating Downtown restaurants roll out exclusive menus, special pricing, and signature dishes crafted just for the occasion. The event highlights the creativity and diversity of local chefs while inviting the community to discover new flavors and revisit favorite spots. It's a delicious way to experience the heart of the city and support the restaurants that make Downtown a true foodie destination.

April 3-12, 2026

Selena & Salsa Market is a lively, family-friendly celebration of music, culture, and flavor in Downtown's historic Union Plaza. The event features a high-energy Selena tribute band, salsa tastings, and a crowd-favorite look-alike competition. Local vendors, food trucks, and interactive activities create a festive market atmosphere for all ages. It's a signature Downtown event that blends community pride with unforgettable entertainment.

Saturday, May 23, 2026

Downtown Employee Appreciation Day celebrates the thousands of individuals who keep Downtown thriving every day. This annual tradition treats the workforce to a full day of fun with free food, live music, games, giveaways, and interactive activities. From morning to evening, employees can relax, connect, and enjoy special perks designed just for them. It's our way of saying thank you to the people who power Downtown's success.

DOWNTOWN
BARSTOOL OPEN

Downtown Barstool Open

The Downtown Barstool Open is back and bigger than ever! After years of steady growth, this year marks our largest expansion to date growing from 18 to 27 miniature-golf holes and participating bars and restaurants. Attendance is also growing, with 1,500 players expected, up from 1,000 last year. This signature Downtown experience has become a premier annual tradition for participants, local bars and restaurants, and the Downtown Management District. Players will putt their way through three unique 9-hole courses spread across 27 Downtown venues.

The Barstool Open event captures regional attention through various promotional efforts. These efforts reach thousands of residents and visitors through a strategic marketing campaign that includes organic and paid social media, direct email, printed media, and traditional advertising.
